The Ten Best Hand luggage

CHOSEN BY REBECCA ARMSTRONG

INDEPENDENT.CO.UK/BEST

1 Royal Republic

£75

Paying top dollar for luggage is all very well - if you have the cash. This holdall manages to look luxurious but it won't break the bank. And the more you use it, the better the leather will look.

BEST LUXURY BUY

2 Mandarin Duck

£305

Nylon bags tend to be the lightest, but lose out in the chic stakes. The 'Hera' may not be feather-light but with its sleek leather exterior it's luxurious - and within hand luggage restrictions.

3 Longchamp

£138

Its spacious, lightweight nylon totes are an airport perennial, but Longchamp has injected a soupçon of glamour into its latest collection, decorated with a fashion-themed cartoon strip.

4 Orla Kiely

£159

A trolley bag takes the strain out of schlepping from check-in to departure gate and this funky, patterned version is stylish too. Made from wipe-clean canvas, it should stay looking fresh.

5 Dorothy Perkins

£25

As well as having space for the magazines, snacks and paperbacks for your plane journey, this stripy rope-handled tote will make an excellent beach bag when you reach your destination.
