

Specs appeal

The eye-popping profits in eyewear

52

Smart call

TruPhone takes on the mobile giants

26

Exchange wars

The bull market in bourses

28

Where billionaires meet

44

January/February 2008

EUROPEAN

BUSINESS

Profit from a changing climate

24-page special

Hawks go green
Renewable solutions to national security

Evergreen stocks
Fund managers see the (solar) light

Call to arms
Why the clean tech sector needs YOU

The top 100 low carbon pioneers

Indulgences

The CNBC European Business guide to the finer things in life

Hot wheels ▶

€1,400
www.tumi.com

Part of US luggage giant Tumi's upscale and pricey Townhouse collection, which includes a trunk, a briefcase and a wheeled suitcase, the Eaton Trolley is the pick for hassled business travelers. Designed by David Chu, former CEO and founder of Nautica, the elegant trolley features ballistic nylon construction, leather trim, linen lining and polished nickel hardware.

High denomination notes ▲

€1000
www.taschen.com

Anyone with a spare €1000, four blank walls and a reinforced coffee table.... oh, and a love of jazz, will adore The Jazzlife Collector's Edition from Taschen. The 'Collection' is a collection of photographs and recordings of legendary artists and unknown street musicians which resulted from a 1960 journey by photographer William Claxton and German musicologist Joachim Berendt on the trail of jazz music. Limited to 1,000 individually signed and numbered copies, every cloth-covered book comes with four signed and numbered, 50x60cm ultrachrome prints and a CD of digitally remastered recordings of music made during Berendt and Claxton's journey.