Sony HDR-CX6

Sony's high-definition camcorder is a superb all-rounder, with crisp, sharp high-definition pictures and surround sound. It's also a pretty reasonable still camera, thanks to its 6.1 megapixel sensor. £900, sony.co.uk

Mogo X54

This tiny mouse folds down to be stored and charge itself in your laptop's expansion card slot. It's brilliantly simple to set up, and can double as a remote control for your laptop's music software. A must for any frequent traveller. £60, newtonperipherals.com.

Shure SE420

Spending £250 on headphones may seem madness but one listen to these will surely change your mind. The sound is amazingly detailed, and the expanding foam covers block out Tube and plane noise as well. £249, shure.co.uk

Nokia N810

A great idea, this small tablet with a 4.1ins screen and slide-out keyboard is perfect for browsing and email, and has even got a built-in webcam. £100, nokia.co.uk
